

THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN, SATURDAY MORNING, AUGUST 4, 1866.

National Republican.

LOCAL NEWS.

FUNERAL OF JOHN BOSS.—The funeral of the late John Boss, chief of the Cherokee nation, took place yesterday morning from Joy's Hotel, corner of Eighth street and Market Street, and was attended by a very large number of persons, among them Hon. D. M. Cooley, Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and delegations from several tribes now in this city. The body had been embalmed, was placed in a Rocalla casket, covered with a black silk cloth, which was heavily mounted with silver bangles and trimmings, and bore on the breast a silver plate inscribed, "John Boss, Chief of the Cherokee, born October 3d, 1790, died August 1st, 1864." A handsome wreath of flowers from the green-house at the Executive Mansion was placed on the coffin.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Dr. B. P. Brown, of the Fountry Methodist Episcopal church; Rev. Dr. A. G. Gillette, of the Thirteenth Street Methodist; and Rev. Dr. Septimus Tustin, of the Presbytery, who delivered the sermon. At the conclusion the corps was borne to the burial place, following the pall-bearers: Captains James McDonald, White Catcher, Huston, Daniel H. Ross, John Johns, and Smith Christy; all of them Cherokees except Captain John, who is a Choctaw. They served as captains of the Indian troops in the Union army, and were members of the same family of the deceased, with members of the delegation, followed the remains to the depot and left for Wilmington, Delaware, where the corps will be placed in a vault until it is decided at the next session of the Cherokee Legislature as to the final interment.

FIRST SABBATH IN AUGUST.—We again refer to our "Church Directory" in another column. Tomorrow will be another day of special interest in our Protestant Episcopal, Methodist Episcopal, and Presbyterian, Independent Methodist, and Baptist (except Thirteenth street) churches, in each of which the sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered.

We have the pleasure to announce the arrival in this city, yesterday afternoon, of the Rev. Mr. Ames, the new pastor of Wesley Chapel, corner of Fifth and Locust streets. The warm sympathy and his family received a most cordial welcome, and, we doubt not, will soon realize a good share of that genuine friendship and attention which has ever characterized the good citizens of the national metropolis. Rev. Mr. Ames will preach in Wesley Chapel on Sunday morning, and the public lecture on Tuesday evening.

As our Directors indicate, all the other churches of the District of Columbia and Alexandria will be open for Divine service, and the pulpits will, as usual, be well supplied.
